Deacon Selection

On Sunday, August 22, we will have the opportunity to select two men to serve the next three years as a deacon of Adaton Baptist Church. The men who will be voted on are Larry Mize and Patrick Ray. Larry will rotate back on after not serving for a year. He and his wife Barbara live in Adaton community and are active members of Adaton Baptist Church. Patrick Ray has not served before as a deacon and so after being elected he will be ordained on August 29. There is attached to this week's announcements some biographical information about Patrick, Natalie and their family. Please be praying for these men and our church as we have the opportunity to set them apart to serve the families of Adaton Baptist Church

I am Patrick Ray and have been nominated for deacon election. I grew up in Pontotoc and attended Black Zion Baptist Church until I moved to Starkville in 1998. I accepted Christ as Savior and was baptized when I was 11. I was active in VBS and our youth group while growing up in Pontotoc. I graduated from Miss. State in 2000 with a BS in Secondary Ed. and again in 2005 with an MS in Instructional Technology. I have worked in the West Point school district since 2001 as a social studies teacher, technology & engineering teacher, and now as principal at the Career & Technology Center. Natalie grew up in Corinth. She was a member of Harper Road Christian Church where she was saved and baptized at age 12. Natalie was also active in her church while growing up and prior to moving to Starkville in 1997. She attended Miss. State and graduated in 2001 with a BS in Secondary Ed. and in 2006 with an MS in Ag Information Science Ed. She has been the 4H and Family Consumer Science Extension Agent for Clay County since 2014. Natalie and I were married in 2001 and have attended Adaton Baptist for over 15 years. I sing in the choir and we both have worked with VBS and taught Sunday School classes for several years. We have two sons, Riley (12) and Mason (6).
